

Munu Hicken-Gabberia, Founder & CEO, *Live for Tomorrow

Munu is an established entrepreneur with 23 years of UK retail experience, a degree in industrial design as well as an MBA. Upon immigrating to Canada in 2006, Munu focused his energy and experience into the green economy. As a result, LFT Group and the Live for Tomorrow brand was born. Munu is responsible for sales, new product development and product regulatory matters. He is a former member of the Port Moody City Council Economic Development Committee and Environmental Committee, as well as the Review Panel for Seeds Business Development Centre.