

Andrew Marr
Director, Solid Waste Planning, Solid Waste Services
Metro Vancouver

Andrew Marr was trained as a chemical engineer at the University of BC, and spent 7 years in the private sector (in research & development for rechargeable batteries, and in hazardous waste management) before joining Metro Vancouver. Most of his 26 years with Metro Vancouver has been working in the Solid Waste Services department, especially in the area of waste reduction and recycling, with a few years working in water conservation, liquid waste, and environmental management. Since 2004 he has also taught Waste Reduction and Recycling Technology at the BC Institute of Technology.
